

Topia + Grant Thornton:

Technology enabled tax and advisory services

Topia delivers the most advanced and complete technology solution for business travel and distributed workforce compliance management. Grant Thornton International Limited (GTIL) is one of the world's leading networks of member firms providing audit, tax and advisory services. Through our alliance with Grant Thornton LLP*, organizations benefit from the powerful combination of Topia technology and data complimented by the global mobility and workforce consulting and compliance services provided by Grant Thornton to address the challenges created by employee working location.

How we work together for you

1. Grant Thornton can advise on the global tax and social security rules that inform your implementation and configuration of Topia Compass.
2. Topia Compass proactively monitors distributed employees' working locations and offers key location-based data required for tax risk management and compliance.
3. By capitalizing on the data made available in Topia Compass, Grant Thornton can efficiently assist in advising on tax considerations across a distributed workforce in order to support tax compliance for organizations globally.
4. The information in Topia Compass enables Grant Thornton to focus on providing tax value-added insights and advice rather than spending time collecting data required for tax calculations and other services.
5. Grant Thornton works closely with Topia in providing product feedback and expert guidance.

"Topia provides our clients and the Grant Thornton teams serving them highly accurate data to proactively deliver the tax and advisory services clients need in embracing distributed workforces."

- Richard Tonge, Principal, Grant Thornton

Benefits of working together

- Efficiency: Eliminate the need to manually verify employee location using receipts, calendars and other methods and allow efforts to be focused on key services.
- Manage tax risk: Benefit from real-time risk analysis in Topia Compass, alongside proactive consulting and timely tax and social security assistance from Grant Thornton.
- Mitigate tax leakage: Manage global tax obligations and mitigate tax exposure and potential liabilities.
- Audit defense: Proactively plan for tax audits with verifiable and auditable data.
- Future of work: Enable flexible working policies in the new normal of distributed workforces.
