

Topia Mobility Check-Ins

Enhance employee experience, increase engagement and drive continuous improvement

Understanding employee experiences during their mobility journey is critical to retaining top talent. Topia's Mobility Check-Ins enables employees to easily provide feedback at six designated touchpoints of their mobility journey. This will enable HR teams to have an immediate view of employee satisfaction and a real-time view of the performance of their mobility program - allowing businesses to react and retain top talent. This rich data can feed into organizational KPIs and power cross-company benchmarks on what is and isn't working in today's mobility programs.

Get immediate, actionable insights into employee satisfaction at six significant stages of the global mobility journey:

Benefits

- View immediate insight into employee satisfaction
- Drive alignment through enhanced employee engagement
- Identify timely, actionable feedback on your global mobility process
- Highlight how supported employees feel throughout the entire process
- Unlock industry benchmarking

Key Capabilities

Quick, easy, and user-friendly questionnaires: Short feedback forms at six designated touch points will help Global Mobility teams understand whether your mobile workforce has the support and knowledge they need before, during, and after their mobility journey.

Improve employee engagement: Enables Global Mobility to collect valuable feedback throughout an employee's mobility journey and boost the level of engagement between HR, Global Mobility and your mobile employee population.

Connect fragmented data: Link your employee mobility data with broader HRIS information in a single view. Combine satisfaction data with performance ratings and unlock new insights - driving your talent strategy forward. Avoid the risk of assignees slipping through the cracks of fragmented global system and ensure mobility teams have a comprehensive view.

Real-time insights to employee satisfaction: Instant access to easy-to-understand reporting and analytic dashboards will highlight program successes, identify areas for improvement and reduce the risk of costly assignment failure.

Drive continuous improvement: Mobility teams have an immediate view into employee satisfaction and the performance of various aspects of the mobility program, providing rich information for improvement opportunities and feeding into organizational KPIs.
